

Do you have books and DVDs in other languages?

We have small book collections in three languages:

Russian
Spanish
Chinese

We also have movie DVDs in many languages in our DVD collection. Also, many English language movie DVDs have subtitles in other languages. We can help you find what you want. Please ask at the Help Desk.

What other tools do you have that can help me learn English?

Please see the Learn or improve your English brochure for other tools at the library and in the community.

Adult Basic Education Collection

Bellingham Public Library

What is the Adult Basic Education collection?

A collection of books, DVDs, and CDs for adult students and teachers. If you are learning to read, or are learning English, this is the collection for you!

Where is the Adult Basic Education collection?

The collection is located at our Central Library, 210 Central Avenue, Bellingham. It is located on the main floor, near the Teen Space.

What is in the collection?

Nonfiction books, CDs, and DVDs written for all levels of English learners and readers. Subjects include:

Citizenship	Learning English
Daily Living	Teaching English
Dictionaries	Math
Grammar	People
Health	Pre GED
History	Writing
Jobs

Are there stories?

We have many stories written for all levels of English learners and readers.

Can I listen to a story and read along at the same time?

Yes, some books have a CD attached to them so you can listen while you read. All books that have a CD attached have a blue dot on the spine and cover.

Blue dot on the book means there is a CD

Are there books I can read online?

Yes, you can read books online. You can use the computers at the library. If you have a computer, smartphone, or tablet, and an Internet connection, you can read online at home.

Tumble Book collection-online books

Tumble books are picture books and story books that are animated. You can listen and read along. They are written for children, but are fun to use.

Rapid Reads-online books

Rapid reads are short, exciting books for adult readers.

Need help?

You may need some help getting started with online books. We are ready to help you!

We can also help you find books in the Adult Basic Education collection. Please ask.
