What is RBDigital?
Your Bellingham Public Library card is the key to access thousands of free magazines through RBDigital. This collection has magazines and ‘bookazines’ from around the world in English and other languages. Read a single issue or sign up to receive new issues when they are released. No waiting. No holds. Instant access. No time limits. Get started!

What computers work with RBDigital?
- Mac owners need to be running Apple operating system of 10.7 or high
- PC owners need to be running Windows operating system Vista or higher

How accessing RBDigital on computers works
- You can read any number of magazines on your computer by streaming (viewing in your browser while connected to the internet). You cannot download RBDigital magazines unless you access them on a mobile device such as a tablet or smartphone.
- Once you check them out, the issues are yours to keep until you return them. There is no check out limit on the number of current and available back issues of magazines you can enjoy.
- Magazines are full-text, in color, and may provide additional content such as video, audio, and web links.
- If you choose, RBDigital will automatically check out new issues of magazines as soon as they are available, and send you a notifying email.

Set up your computer
- You will need a library card, an email address, internet access, and a PC or Mac.
- Chrome is the preferred web, but you can use the latest versions of Firefox or Edge. If you use Safari as your browser, RBDigital requires Adobe Flash to be loaded and enabled.
- In your computer, go to the library’s website at www.bellinghampubliclibrary.org. Click ‘Digital Library’, and then ‘eMagazines’, and then on the words ‘RBDigital Magazine Collection’.
- Click ‘Register’ in the upper right corner. You will be asked for:
  - Username—this can be anything, and entered with no spaces
  - Password—this can be anything, entered with no spaces and at least 4 characters long
  - Your email address
  - Your library card number
- Click the red Register button. Magazine covers should start to display. If they do not, tap the 3 line menu symbol in the upper left corner, then tap ‘Magazines’.
