Hello,

Yesterday I was in the library and was disappointed to discover the lack of holiday decorations. Rather than re-state why I am writing to you, I am sharing below what I posted on FB. I know you have a board meeting on December 20th and would appreciate you sharing my concern with the board members.

Today I went out and about town to get myself out of a really angry mood (never mind why ... I got over it). I was most often the first to say, "Merry Christmas/Happy Holidays" to those I encountered at each stop and received a friendly, "same to you". My last stop was our public library where I wandered a bit, checked out a book and bought two used ones. On my way to the exit something felt strange. I glanced all around and it hit me: there are no Christmas/holiday decorations. Not a bow in sight. When I inquired of the employee standing near, "Why aren't there any decorations?", he replied, "A woman called a few years ago and complained that we had a decorated tree so we haven't put one up since." I don't know if this is the whole story or even a true story (but I suspect it is) but I am going to politely write to the Library about it. If one voice among the plethora of library patrons can remove a tree (and the other celebrations of the season) than perhaps one woman can bring them back. I'm inviting you to join me by writing to the library. Let us be merry. Let us be jolly. We are still a United States of America and we are in need our good cheer.

Libraries are fantastic places !!! Ours is one of the best. They serve and represent all people and can be a place that goes beyond the world of books. Our divided nation needs public places that visually acknowledges and celebrates our differences and our nation's celebrations. If this puts too much strain on those who work there, perhaps a solution is volunteers that would love to do this.

I would appreciate acknowledgement of my email as well as the results of my request.
Hopefully ....

Joy S.

Bellingham Public Library 2022 Highlights

December 2, 2022

Reaching the end of the year is often bittersweet – it’s hard to believe the time has passed, but it’s wonderful to reflect on all of the year’s adventures and accomplishments. Please join us for a look back at Bellingham Public Library 2022 Highlights, from services to Top 10 materials checked out.

BPL Staff at Halloween

2022 Library Service Highlights

Library Locations Re-Open for In-Person Service

Bellingham Public Library returned to in-person service at all branches on Tuesday, February 15, after a second closure due to the COVID-19 pandemic. In September of 2022, Sunday open hours returned at the Central Library and will now run year-round. This increases the opportunity for all to visit the library with more convenience.

Community Outreach Events

In 2022, BPL staff could be found out and about at all sorts of local events including the Barkley Market, Bellingham Pride Parade, Western Washington University’s Red Square Fair, Bellingham Back to School Block Party, the Goodwill Immigrant & Refugee Resource Fair, Library Parties in the Parks, and more. Library staff love connecting with the community and bringing library services directly to our friends and neighbors.

Community Voices Kits

Thanks to individual private donations and Library Giving Day donations, the BPL developed a series of Community Voices kits that center and celebrate diverse voices and experiences in our community. These kits, developed for children ages birth – 8, provide stories, conversation opportunities and resources to help bridge learning, understanding and connection with others. Each kit contains a variety of children’s books, as well as resource guides to help navigate topics of race, belonging and connection.

Use your Library card to reserve a Community Voices Kit on the Bellingham Public Library website, or by phone. Each kit can be checked out for 3 weeks.

Library In-person Programs Resume

The return of in-person programs brought back popular events such as the annual Children's Craft Fair, Builders Club, regular Storytimes at the Library, author events, SkillShare programs for adults, and new events like the Bellingham Police Department's Literacy Initiative, as well as Storytimes at the Bellis Fair Mall. Check out the online calendar to find out what's happening at the Library.

Summer Reading

Congratulations to all Library Summer Reading Superstars! Summer Reading participants of all ages enjoy reading challenges, special library events, prizes, and recognition of their reading achievements. In 2022, there were 505 finishers, and thanks to the generous partnerships with the Friends of the Bellingham Public Library and Whatcom Educational Credit Union, Bellingham Public Library gave away 1,366 books to youth over the summer. 873 of those books were distributed out in the community during pop-up book giveaways and programming, and the remaining 493 were awarded to youth Summer Reading finishers.

New Library Staff Welcomed

It takes a hard-working, friendly crew of folks to do all the work behind the scenes and at the Library's public service desks. Many new staff members were welcomed in 2022. From Library Assistants to Librarians, everyone plays an important role in the work we at the Bellingham Public Library. See a new face at the Library? Take a moment to say hello!

New in 2022 at  Bellingham Public Library

Hybrid Vehicle for Community Outreach

Library staff are constantly on the go. In 2022 BPL added an electric hybrid vehicle for community outreach activities. Wherever you see it on the road, you can be sure it's transporting staff and materials on their way to serve the public. Give us a wave if you see us!

Land Acknowledgement and Mural installation

On November 4, the Land Acknowledgement words were installed at Bellingham Central Library, inside the beautiful Coast Salish "Spindle Whorl" frame painted by local artist Jason LaClair in the main lobby.

We acknowledge that we gather on territory that has been the traditional and ancestral homeland to the Lhaq'temish (the Lummi people), the Nooksack people, and other Coast Salish tribes of this region Since Time Immemorial. We honor our shared responsibility to this land and these waters, we commit to learning from Indigenous wisdom, and we strive to repair and deepen our relationships as neighbors and friends.

Book Groups Celebrate 2022

Bellingham is home to many book groups, including the library's own Bellingham Reads group. Many local book groups utilize the library's book club kits to ensure that each member of their group is able to read the same book within a month.

A BPL Book Club Kit contains 10 copies of the same book and a reading guide to facilitate book group discussion, and they check out for 32 days. Book groups can choose from among many fantastic titles.

The top 3 most popular kits in 2022 were:

- The Cold Millions by Jess Walter (the 2023 Whatcom READS title)
- Hamnet by Maggie O'Farrell
- Being Heumann by Judith Heumann.

The Friends of the Bellingham Public Library 2022 Highlights

BPL is so grateful for the Friends of the Bellingham Public Library. The Friends are an all-volunteer nonprofit charitable organization which raises money to benefit the library each year through sales of donated books. Thank you to all patrons who also support the library through donating materials to the Friends.

In 2022, The Friends of the Library contributed $27,900 to the Bellingham Public Library to cover the costs of programs, including Whatcom READS, Books for Babies, Summer Reading, Community Outreach events, staff development and more. Thank you Friends of the Bellingham Public Library.

Regular Meeting of the Library Board of Trustees
Tuesday, November 15, 2022 – Central Library Lecture Room
3:30 p.m.

Minutes of Actions and Decisions of the Library Board of Trustees of the Bellingham Public Library as authorized by RCW 27.12.210 and SEC. 7.02 Charter of the City of Bellingham.

Board Members Present: Rick Osen, Jim McCabe, Rebecca Craven, Kristy Van Ness and Melissa Morin

Library Staff: Rebecca Judd, Annette Bagley, Jon McConnel, Jennifer Vander Ploeg and Wendy Jenkins

Others Present: Kristina Michele Martens, City Council Liaison; Leigh Ann Giles and Jennie Tuckerman, Friends of BPL Co-Presidents; 3 Urban Planning students from Western Washington University

Call to order and introductions: Regular session was called to order at 3:31 p.m. by Chair, Rick Osen. Rick read aloud the Land Acknowledgement.

Approve/modify agenda: Rick mentioned that Police Chief Rebecca Mertzig had a scheduling conflict and was not available for today's meeting. We will try to re-schedule sometime early in 2023. He noted that prior to the pandemic, printed agenda packets were made available. Returning to in-person meetings, we decided to try projecting the packet onto the screen. Rebecca Craven moved to approve the agenda. Melissa Morin seconded. Motion carried.

Public comment: Rick welcomed the attending students and provided a brief overview of the Library Board. Concerning public comment, Rick pointed out that during the pandemic public comment could only be submitted through email. As governing bodies go back to in-person meetings, new information and interpretations of the Open Public Meetings Act (OPMA) have been published by the Municipal Resources and Service Center (MRSC). One of the issues is about the necessity or method of providing oral public comment time on the agenda. Rick asked the board members if they wanted to go back to the pre-pandemic process for comments or to look more deeply into the OPMA changes. Rick invited trustees to send him comments or suggestions.

Consent agenda: Rebecca J. commented that a correction was made to the revenues on the October YTD report. She screenshared the corrected report. Annette added that the library website version has been updated. Jim McCabe moved to approve the October 18, 2022 Regular meeting minutes and the October 2022 performance and activity measures and financial reports as corrected. Kristy Van Ness seconded. Motion carried.

Board Chair report:

- Donation to Outreach in honor of Colleen Morse, Outreach Specialist: The Outreach department recently received a donation of $10,000 in honor of Colleen's exemplary service, and in loving memory of Outreach patron Dorothy Berry. During the pandemic, Colleen reached out to Dorothy regularly to make sure she had enough to read and to help her feel connected during an isolating time. On behalf of the library's Board of Trustees, we thank you, Colleen, for making such a difference in the lives of so many.
- Fundraising committee:
  - With the completion of the Facilities Master Plan and submission of the Library's 2023-24 budget requests, the committee plans to get back to work on the Planned Giving initiative. We expect to settle on a contract with Rachel Myers and begin work with her in March.
  - Library Giving Day (LGD) is scheduled for April 5, 2023, and the Board will need to decide how the contributions will be used. Rick thanked the Friends for holding a book sale on that day to benefit LGD. Rebecca J. suggested that, with the Central Library renovation moving through the budget process, perhaps renovating the Children's space would be something people would enjoy supporting. There was general agreement for this idea.
- Facilities committee:
  - Anticipating that the funding will be allocated for the proposed branch Library at Bellis Fair Mall, the Facilities Committee is beginning to look at the lease options and will meet tomorrow to discuss.
  - Regarding the next phase of the renovation of the Central Library, we have received news that our Capital Improvement grant request to the state legislature was not accepted. Rebecca J. commented on the grant process and noted that we learned a lot with this first attempt and will be better prepared next time with third-party cost estimates. This grant opportunity is on a two-year cycle. Rebecca added that she met with the Finance/Budget team – Brian Heinrich, Deputy Administrator; Andy Asbjornsen, Finance Director; Forrest Longman, Deputy Finance Director; and Carol Rofkar, Superintendent of Traffic, Facilities & Fleet – and they decided to bid the renovation project at $6.5 million, with an additional 2 million in alternates if needed. Rick added that we used alternate add-ons with the Central main floor renovation. Rebecca C. asked if the $6.5 million includes the HVAC system. Rebecca confirmed that it does.

Board member reports:

- Jim commented that he visited the Friends' pop-up sale on Saturday and it looked like it was going well.
- Kristy reported she attended the Community Voices Film Fest and found it incredible and moving, calling it an example of great community building.

City Council liaison report:

- Kristina reported that funding for the Immigration Resource Center (IRC) did not come through, but the Mayor's office will be issuing an RFQ for planning and cost estimates for operation of an IRC. Kristina requested support for this project.

Friends of BPL report:

- Leigh Ann reported that Saturday's pop-up sale was held in the Lecture Room. They limited attendance to 50 people at a time – this went well. They raised $3,600 (more than the September sale). The next pop-up sale is scheduled for February, followed by a return of the Ski to Sea sale in May.
- At the Annual Friends' meeting to be held on April 22, 2023, they will be electing a new board of directors and are in need of a treasurer.

Library Director report:

- Rebecca welcomed everyone who was attending in-person for the first time. She pointed out there are a few changes from pre-pandemic in-person meetings – the room is set up differently and we are projecting the packet rather than providing paper copies. Rebecca welcomed feedback on the changes.
- Whatcom Literacy Council's 2022 fundraising breakfast, featuring Nancy Pearl, will be held in person this Thursday.
- Rebecca announced the Land Acknowledgement has been installed in the lobby and she invited everyone to see Jason LaClair's artwork.
- As noted in the packet Director's Report, the library Lecture Room and Conference room have been identified as the location for the city's Day-Use Warming Center during severe weather events. Road2Home contracted with the City to run the Day-Use Center as well as the overnight shelter at Civic Field. Activation criteria has been established (28 degrees daytime high for 2 or more days for day use; 28 degrees overnight low for night shelter) and shelter status is posted on the Whatcom County Health Department website. If the Day-Use shelter is activated, Lecture Room activities will be cancelled or relocated.
- Jim asked for more information about the $2,995 Whatcom Community Foundation (WCF) grant referred to in the Director's Report. Jon responded that WCF has funded the Foundation Directory Online database for many years. This database helps non-profits identify funding sources. This database is not available from home, only to patrons in our building.

2023 Holidays:

- Rebecca screenshared the 2023 Holidays & Closures document and explained the city is on a 5-day week schedule, but the library is a 7-day operation. In this proposal, the Library will be closed for the city observed holidays and also the actual holiday when it falls on a weekend. Rebecca also noted that a few years ago we decided to be open on Easter Sunday. Rick commented that the Board does not need to approve the city observed holidays but will vote on the additional library closure days. Melissa Morin moved to approve the additional library closures as written. Rebecca Craven seconded. Motion carried.

2023 Meeting Schedule:

- Rebecca screenshared the 2023 Library Board of Trustees meeting schedule. Rick noted the September meeting will be held at an alternate location (due to a Friends' book sale in the Lecture Room). The Fireplace Room at the Fairhaven branch has been reserved, but the Board may want to hold the meeting at the pilot mall location. Rick Osen moved that the meeting schedule be approved as written. Kristy Van Ness seconded. Motion carried.

2023 Rates & Fees:

- Rebecca screenshared the 2023 Rates & Fees spreadsheet. Jen Vander Ploeg reviewed the fees, adding that there are no changes from 2022. Kristy asked for clarification as to why the Eligibility for Library Service policy says, "Library cards are available at no charge," but this spreadsheet shows a fee for Non-Resident borrowers. Jen explained that this Non-Resident fee is for patrons who do not have a library card in Washington state, and who do not live, work or attend school in Whatcom County. Jim McCabe moved to accept the 2023 Rates & Fees as written. Rebecca Craven seconded. Motion carried.

Policy updates:

- Eligibility for Library Services: Rebecca noted that we incorporated the suggested changes from last month's meeting. Kristy Van Ness moved to approve the updated Eligibility for Library Services policy. Melissa Morin seconded. Motion carried.
- Collection Development: Rebecca noted that we made light edits to this policy and incorporated suggested changes. Rick added that with many book challenges occurring across the country, it was important to review and update this policy. Rebecca Craven moved to approve the updated Collection Development policy. Jim McCabe seconded. Motion carried.

New Business:

- For the 2023 Action Plan, Rebecca and Rick have discussed that there needs to be a review of our LOS standards, particularly those for Materials (to factor in the inflation from 2017-present) and Library Hours.

Action items for next meeting:

- Election of 2023 board officers
- 2023 Library Giving Day focus

Meeting adjourned at 4:19 p.m.

Next Regular Library Board Meeting – December 20, 2022 – Central Library Lecture Room – 3:30 p.m.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT FOR December 20, 2022

The end of the year is a time to reflect on successes achieved, relationships strengthened, and lessons learned. 2022 has been a remarkable year for the Library! It is also a time to look ahead and plan for the future. At the December Board meeting, we will be sharing a draft of the 2023 Action Plan, which incorporates the Public Services Plan completed in November. (Rebecca Judd, Library Director)

WELCOME & INCLUDE

Teen Advisory Board (TAB): Teen Services Librarian Jennifer Lovchik meets monthly with her Teen Advisory Board (TAB). This group of 13 Bellingham middle and high school students generated many ideas for how to “personalize” the new Teen Space this past year. Jennifer was able to get the teens a display board where they can feature teen book titles and recently installed under-shelf lighting that can change colors, all per TAB’s request. Coming soon: a “gumball” machine of capsules filled with TAB generated book recommendations and more. (Bethany Hoglund, Deputy Director)

Welcoming New Staff: The Library was thrilled to welcome 5 Library Assistants and 1 Library Clerk this month. Please join us in saying hello to Library Assistants Adrienne, Alex, Audrey, Christine and Jo, and our newest Library Clerk Kat. (Jen Vander Ploeg, Head of Public Services and Operations)

ACCESS & OPPORTUNITY

Community Outreach: Villa Santa Fe: Children’s Librarians Ali Kubeny and Bernice Chang have started regular off-site visits to Villa Santa Fe, a primarily Spanish speaking housing complex in Bellingham. Ali is able to use her Spanish language skills to build relationships with youth residents and introduce them to library services. This is an exciting collaboration, and we are thrilled to be able to connect with children and families not yet connected to the library on the north side of town. (Bethany Hoglund, Deputy Director)

Community Drop Boxes: A second Community Drop Boxes meeting was held to discuss potential locations for stand-alone drop boxes in the community. Our next step is to have conversations with property owners for Sehome Village, Barkley Village, Sunset Square and Fred Meyer on Bakerview. (Annette Bagley, Head of Community Relations)

Outreach Restarted: Library service to another assisted living facility has been restarted. A multitude of staff and resident changes during the pandemic has made restarting services challenging in some locations that we regularly served before COVID-19. (Jen Vander Ploeg, Head of Public Services and Operations)

READ & LEARN

Community Voices Kits: Children's Librarians Bernice Chang and Ali Kubeny and Children's Specialists Julie Mauermann and Mandee Palmer put together the first three Community Voices Kits on the theme "Race, belonging and connection." Each kit contains 18 picture books that center and celebrate diverse voices and experiences in our community. These kits will provide stories, conversation opportunities and resources for families that help bridge learning, understanding and connection with each other. Two board book kits will be ready soon as well. Planning for the next round of kits is underway; we aim to have them available this winter/early spring. Many thanks to a private donor, as well as Library Giving Day 2022 donors, for the funding to create the kits. (Bethany Hogle, Deputy Library Director)

Research, Reference, Tech Questions and More! Since January 1, the librarian team has answered 1,120 questions via our Research Referrals process. This process captures questions that come in via email, online chat, over the phone and in person at public service desks, if a librarian is unable to answer the question in the moment. The categories that generate the most questions are technology support, general ready reference and general research. Thank you to the public services librarian team for conducting this "invisible" yet critically important work. (Bethany Hogle, Deputy Library Director)

Whatcom READS: Publicity materials for 2023 have arrived, including posters, bookmarks, and stickers, as well as 'catch and release' books to distribute and a large pull-up banner located in the Central Library lobby. A variety of Whatcom READS events have been scheduled for January and February. BPL will host an evening with Jess Walter, author of The Cold Millions, at Mount Baker Theatre on Friday, Mar. 3 at 7 p.m. (Annette Bagley, Head of Community Relations)

INFORM & INVOLVE

Sharing our Story: Washington Library Association's Alki Magazine published write-ups about Bellingham Public Library's Land Acknowledgement and mural, as well as the BPD Literacy Initiative. Both can be found in the Milestones section on page 38 of the Dec. 2022 issue at <https://www.wla.org/alki-home>. (Annette Bagley, Head of Community Relations)

Winter Playbook: BPL created a two-page ad for the center spread of the Bellingham Parks Dept Playbook. The next publication will be released in early January and cover Jan. – Mar. activities. (Annette Bagley, Head of Community Relations)

Year-End Highlights: An informative webpage of Bellingham Public Library 2022 Highlights was created by Community Relations Specialist Jenni Johnson, with a range of fun stats about BPL activities this year. A copy is included in the Board packet for December. (Annette Bagley, Head of Community Relations)

Website and eNewsletter Engagement: As of Dec. 14, BellinghamPublicLibrary.org website has had 635,105 pageviews year to date by 157,066 users. Of the total audience, 63.3% are returning visitors and 36.7% are new visitors. The BPL monthly e-newsletter for Dec. had an open rate of 52%, which is high for industry standards. There were 528 clicks on "Library Specialist 1" job opening, 282 clicks on "free COVID-19 tests available," and 110 clicks on "Bellingham Public Library 2022 Highlights." (Annette Bagley, Head of Community Relations)

THRIVE & GROW

Facilities Update: Some preparatory electrical work began on the freight elevator this month, with the bulk of the modernization project expected to happen in the early parts of 2023. Security cameras were installed at Fairhaven Library at the beginning of December. The cameras were installed outside of the "library space" to mitigate some of the poor sight lines in hallways and on the building's exterior. Some plexiglass shields were removed from service desks this month. Other shields that were not impeding service have been left in place. (Jen Vander Ploeg, Head of Public Services and Operations)

Data Security Incident: Our primary print vendor, Baker & Taylor, experienced another security incident in November. This time the impact was smaller and the duration shorter than their outage in August into September, but they've also shared less detail. They've said that they detected an attempted breach, shut down their systems, and then spent time checking that their data was intact. Their main systems were down from around Nov. 20 to Nov. 27. While this was all during our end-of-year pause on placing new orders, staff still do access B&T's system during this time to prepare for future orders and to process items that have been shipped to us. (Jon McConnel, Head of Digital Services)

Year-End Closeout: With the combination of end-of-year purchasing closeout and B&T's security incident, incoming print materials have been feast-or-famine recently. We hope all outstanding orders are shipped and invoiced by the end of the month to save the work needed to move orders to the new budget year. It seems there are always a few that don't make it, but hopefully not many. (Jon McConnel, Head of Digital Services)

Contracting: Most of our digital services contracts are on a calendar-year cycle, so late fall is a busy time for renewals. We have been working on contracts for several services, including Kanopy, Freegal, and Reference Solutions. There is also a new contract with AT&T Mobility to test their mobile data service. If the testing goes well, we are planning to convert some Verizon hotspots to AT&T, largely due to the potential for cost savings, but also to provide a greater diversity of data services for patrons. (Jon McConnel, Head of Digital Services)

Respectfully submitted,
Rebecca Judd

Bellingham Public Library
2023 Public Services Plan to Increase Safety and Ease for Staff and Customers

Over the past few years, Bellingham Public Library has experienced a steady escalation in the number, types, and severity of patron behavioral incidents, especially at the Central Library and Fairhaven branch. Staff have experienced stress caused by a multitude of factors, such as the Covid-19 pandemic, a lengthy encampment behind the Library in Lee Memorial Park, and threatening behavior and assaults on staff by patrons. Safety has become a persistent factor in the everyday work life of Library staff, who are by nature empathetic to all patrons but find it increasingly difficult to be resilient with decreasing recovery time between incidents.

As a collaborative problem-solving effort, this plan was developed over the course of three professionally-facilitated discussion sessions with Public Services staff. The sessions focused on the question of what was needed to improve safety and ease for our staff and customers. Themes that emerged from discussion were organized into five key action areas:

- 1. Provide Training and Support for Public Services Staff
- 2. Prioritize Safety in Facilities Redesign and Renovations
- 3. Strengthen Internal Communications
- 4. Improve Incident Response
- 5. Help all of our Clients

Action area #1: Provide Training and Support for Public Services Staff

1. Host presenters from other organizations and community partners to increase knowledge among Library staff about community resources available to patrons or staff. Incorporate information into onboarding for new Public Services staff.
2. Seek learning opportunities and activities that help staff identify and respond to behaviors in our libraries that may pose a risk to safety and ease. Designate a note taker and share notes after trainings. Trainings with role playing and scenario drills preferred.
3. Seek learning opportunities that support and build a culture of resilience at the Library.

Action area #2: Prioritize Safety in Facilities Redesign and Renovations

1. Act as soon as possible on easy fixes: Remove plexiglass from Help Desk, add cameras at Fairhaven.
2. Include Help Desk improvements and main floor bathroom lock improvements in the 2023 Central Library renovation design.
3. Ensure that suggestions for improvements to the lower lobby area, children's section, and bathroom are included in the Central Library renovation design process in 2023, for construction in 2024.

4. Solicit staff feedback at key stages of Central Library renovation design process for improving safety at Central Library. Consider third-party safety assessment.

Action area #3: Strengthen Internal Communications

1. Continue to hold regular Public Services team meetings, dovetail with trainings.
2. Set up a wall board in a centrally accessible location so that all staff can post information they would like to share informally.
3. Establish system for knowing who is on site.

Action area #4: Improve Incident Response

1. Develop a plan on debriefing, to clarify who is responsible for convening a debriefing, who should be involved, what is the process, what happens afterwards, and how and what do we communicate with those who were not directly involved? Include this information as part of onboarding new Library staff.
2. Ensure easy access to up-to-date contact information for partner organizations.
3. Research options to improve flow of communication during an incident, including between floors and work groups.

Action area #5: Help all of our Clients

1. Establish a Skillshare schedule to bring in staff from social service organizations to share information and provide services.
2. Increase accessibility: hire more staff who are bilingual, provide more translation services for multiple languages, and improve services for visual and hearing impairments.
3. Research options for whether we can serve the needs of clients who need to make emergency phone calls.
4. In the upcoming Central Library renovation design process, consider establishing designated eating areas and quiet areas. Apply new policies and procedures to Branches if possible.
